

From the program, we know that recursive approach makes too many recursive calls due to which it is inefficient specially for the large values. Whereas, dynamic approach stores the values and uses them to calculate the value of larger solutions which, in comparison, is far more efficient than recursive approach. The Bio-O complexity of recursive approach is $2^{(n/2)}$ while the dynamic approach is n (while-loop).